Respected Madam,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for inviting me to the International Nurses Day Celebration scheduled on 12th May 2026. It is indeed an honour to be considered part of such an important occasion that recognizes the dedication and valuable contribution of the nursing profession to healthcare services.

Unfortunately, due to unavoidable official commitments, I regret my inability to attend the program.

I convey my best wishes for the grand success of the celebration and extend my appreciation to the faculty members, students and organizers for their efforts in conducting this meaningful event.

Thank you once again for your kind invitation and understanding.

With Best Regards,
